

Suppliers Commitment

AT CENCOSUD, WE ALL CONTRIBUTE TO SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

Cencosud seeks to establish relationships based on trust, mutual respect and transparency with its Suppliers. In this way it is expected to build sustainable value chains, encourage the growth of both parties and economic development in harmony with the environment, social environment and cultural diversity.

For this reason, we want Suppliers to become part of this commitment by implementing policies, procedures and practices that seek to balance the economic, social and environmental aspects in their relationship with their employees, suppliers, customers, shareholders and the community.

Regulatory compliance

Suppliers seek to comply in good faith with all applicable laws and regulations applicable to work, service, product or goods to be delivered. In addition, they are added to the necessary preventive actions and procedures in the event of any legal breach, especially in the protection of free competition, bribery, money laundering, financing of terrorism and reception, conflicts of interest, intellectual property and confidentiality.

Human rights

Suppliers respect fundamental human rights. It prohibits any form of work that has been contracted illegally or that can be considered analogous to slavery, forced labor or child labor, either directly or indirectly through its suppliers of products and services.

In line with Cencosud's commitments to diversity, its Providers reject any form of arbitrary discrimination based on race or ethnicity, nationality, age, socio-economic status, language, ideology or political opinion, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, filiation, or disability.

The Suppliers declare to respect the freedom of association, the right to collective bargaining, as well as the participation of their workers in unions.

Labor conditions

Suppliers are committed to provide a safe environment for their workers, being proactive in the management of a safe and healthy work environment, guaranteeing working conditions aligned with the regulations regarding remuneration, work hours and subcontracting, and preventing situations that represent work environments that are hostile or offensive to people, such as workplace harassment, whether physical or psychological.

Good environmental practices

Suppliers seek to minimize the impact that their operations can have on the environment in terms of climate change and responsible waste management, as well as other initiatives applicable to their industry.

